

EXPERIENCE

Jen is a Partner at Weil & Drage. She started her legal career defending manufacturers in products liability actions, attorneys in legal malpractice claims, and public entities in personal injury matters. Since 2007, Jen has exclusively represented design professionals, including counseling on risk management issues and contract negotiations; litigating breach of contract, personal injury, and multi-million dollar construction defect actions; and defending professional administrative investigations and complaints before the California Architects Board and California Board for Professional Engineers, Land Surveyors, Geologists, and Geophysicists. Jen's cases range from two-party actions to complex litigation involving multi-billion dollar projects and clients range from boutique design firms to firms that consistently rank in Engineering News-Record's Top 500 Design Firms.
