

EXPERIENCE

Clara Roberts is an associate at Weil & Drage. Her practice focuses on cases involving professional negligence and malpractice, as well as construction defect matters. She is also experienced in personal injury (various causes), defamation and slander, landlord/tenant, and employment discrimination. Clara has successfully resolved cases through dispositive motions, settlement conferences, arbitration, and in the California Court of Appeal. She has been actively involved with the American Inns of Court (Robert A. Banyard Group, Newport Beach, California) and organized a mentoring group for new lawyers in Billings, Montana (Yellowstone Area Bar Association).

Outside of the office, Clara has participated in multiple marathons, bicycle races, and triathlons, including the Rome Marathon and the Ironman California.

Clara is licensed and practices in all courts in the State of California.
